ARTHUR A. ALLEN
says

May I take this opportunity to tell you how we value AUDUBON FIELD NOTES here in the Laboratory of Ornithology at Cornell University.

In our Fuertes Library we keep it available on the reading table at all times, together with the Audubon Magazine, The Auk, The Condor, Wilson Bulletin and other bird and conservation periodicals; and I notice that AUDUBON FIELD NOTES is referred to by the students as frequently as any.

I certainly hope you continue to publish it so that all of the information that it contains will be available to our students specializing in ornithology. I am convinced of its value.

Sincerely yours,
ARTHUR A. ALLEN
Professor of Ornithology
